MIAMI, Oct. 5.—A tropical hurricane whipped into the Florida Straits today and roared toward Key West and Miami.

Winds up to 132 miles an hour were expected to hit the keys by noon and reach the resort city by late afternoon.

Hurricane warnings were hoisted along the Florida east coast as far north as Jupiter, about eight miles above Palm Beach. Flares also were raised on the west coast below Naples, about 35 miles south of Fort Myers.

The Lake Okechobee area which was badly hit two weeks ago by a similar storm was included in the area.

Batters Havana
The whirling storm battered Havana before striking northeast across the Straits.
The Miami weather bureau reported that houses in the Cuban capital were leveled by sustained winds "considerably higher" than 123 miles an hour.

The National Weather Observatory in Havana messaged to Miami that utility poles and trees were uprooted as the howling winds swept over the city.
Rain preceding the hurricane began falling steadily early this morning in Key West and the Miami area. Ominous black clouds also spread over the whole southern part of the state.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and John Foster Dulles, the GOP candidate's first choice for secretary of state, confer in Albany today on the Berlin crisis and kindred world problems.
Dulles was to arrive in Albany today to report to Dewey, and was to return to New York tonight for a flight back to Paris where he is serving as a United Nations delegate.

Dewey laid aside details of his campaign and reserved the day for conferences with his chief foreign policy advisers.

Plans Second Trip

His staff meanwhile continued work on the itinerary of a second campaign trip which will take the governor on a week-long Midwest tour Sunday.

The Dewey-Dulles meeting was timed to follow last night's foreign policy address by Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R, Mich.), who as Senate foreign relations chairman echoed Dewey's theme of national unity and appealed for a Republican victory.

Thousands More Join French Strike

Report 200,000 Public Service
Workers Swell Ranks
Of Strikers Today

PARIS, Oct. 5.—(INS)—The ranks of strikers in France swelled to more than a half million today with the walkout of 200,000 public service workers.

The public service workers in Paris and elsewhere joined some 700,000 miners who have quit work in France's northern coal fields.

The public service employees plan to stay out for only 24 hours in a token strike, while the miners who struck yesterday plan to remain out of the pits until their demands are settled.

Paris and other parts of France suffered from lowered water pressure after the public service men failed to go on the job. Streets were left lined with unemptied garbage cans.

Like the coal strike, the public service walkout was called by the new working coalition of the communist-led labor confederation and the Christian federation.

Tour Reveals Highway Work Done In County During Past Summer

Lawrence county can boast of at least 14 more miles of better highways than were available at the beginning of the present construction season, it was revealed in a several hour tour Monday afternoon of the 1948 improvements that were made on county roads this past summer by the maintenance crews of the state highway department and by private contractors.

In the annual tour of the county instituted by the department of highways, S. W. Jackson, district engineer over seven Western Pennsylvania counties with Alfred A. Martin, Lawrence county superintendent, directed a group of city, county, civic and trucking company officials over the many roads where much needed improvements

County Authorities Are De-

Sammy Nail

MAY PRESENT COURT PETITION

County and state authorities were marking time today in the homicide case of little Sammy Nail, aged six years, who is alleged to have shot and fatally wounded his brother, George, aged 10, in the Nail home in Clifton Flats early Sunday morning. No action is planned in the case until after the little victim's funeral Wednesday morning.

What course of action will be followed in the case has not been definitely determined by the authorities. It is possible that a petition may be presented to juvenile court in the matter and have the boy made a ward of the court.

To Be Examined

Two developments are certain in the matter, however. Little Sammy, who had just started to school in the first grade this year, will be examined by a psychiatrist to determine certain phases in regard to his mental development. This action will be taken by Probation Officer Jack M. Dunlap, who has charge of juvenile work for the county.

Coroner Charles E. Allen is also planning to have an inquest, in order (Continued on Page Two) Shenango Township volunteer firemen were called to the home of Ronald Gibson, Gardner Stop, at 10:30 p. m. Monday to quell a blaze which had started in the living room of the home from a defective chimney.

Slays His Girl Friend, Then Takes Own Life

Murder-Suicide Occur In Downtown Cafe At Washington
Early Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—(INS)—A 23-year-old marine plunged a knife into the chest of his married girl friend early today and then killed himself in a downtown Washington cafe.

The murder-suicide took place while more than a score of customers looked on horrified.
The victims were identified as Mrs. Claudia Jean Jaskowiak of Washington, estranged wife of an army sergeant, and Pvt. Clyde S. Jordan, on leave from Camp Lejeune, N. C.

The woman died from a single wound while the youth had four self-inflicted wounds in the abdomen.
The slaying came after Jordan arose from the table the couple was sitting at with some friends and said "I told you I was going to do it, Jean."

Locate Missing Plane; Rescue 23 On Board

MIAMI, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Twenty-three persons aboard a DC-3 charter airliner which skidded into an emergency belly landing on a lonely Bahaman Beach were safe today after virtually being given up for lost.

The 19 rescued Puerto Ricans and four crew members of the ship were flown to Miami last night from Great Harbor Bay, Bahamas, by two Coast Guard amphibious planes.

Another Coast Guard ship had spotted the airliner and its occupants on the beach, 130 miles east of Miami, in mid-afternoon just as the large aerial armada of service and private craft were about to give up hope of ever finding them alive.

Comes Down In Darkness
Richard Oliver of Porth Chester, N. Y., pilot and owner of the twin-engined transport, brought the plane down in a perfect wheels-up landing in pitch darkness after running out of gas. The ship was en route from Tetersboro, N. J., to San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Oliver said he had intended to re-fuel at Miami but that wind drift had forced him off his course. The widespread search was (Continued on Page Two)

Small Nations Seek Agreement On A-Bomb Issue

By JOSEPH L. RANFT
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Oct. 5.—A small nation fight to probe for a compromise agreement between the large western powers and Russia on atomic energy control developed today in the United Nations.

The move was spearheaded by Australia whose spokesman, Col. W. R. Hodgson, bitterly objected to the second successive cancellation of afternoon sessions of the political committee.

An adjournment for the afternoon was called again to permit committee members to sit in on the security council sessions discussing the Berlin blockade.

Hodgson was joined in his objection by British Minister of State Hector McNeill. Both served notice to make a fight for continuous political committee sessions in the future.

Hodgson earlier had moved for appointment of a subcommittee to attempt a reconciliation of differences between Russia and the west.

He took the floor after the foreign minister of communist-dominated Czechoslovakia charged that America is using its stockpile of atom bombs to wage the current "cold war."

Typhoon Sweeps Over Okinawa

TOKYO, Oct. 5.—(INS)—A typhoon that swept over Okinawa left an estimate $10,000,000 damage today in its wreckage filled wake.

The storm, named "Libby" by meteorologists, moved out to sea in the direction of Japan but was expected to pass to the south and east. An account of the devastation on Okinawa was contained in the first official communication from that island in 36 hours.

In a report radioed to Tokyo headquarters of the U. S. Far East Air Forces, Maj. Gen. William Engles, commander of American forces in the Ryukyu Islands, said most of Okinawa's large warehouses were destroyed.
Living quarters of the dependent families of America service personnel on Okinawa were severely damaged, but no casualties were reported by Gen. Engles.

FUTURE ACTION OF SOVIET UNKNOWN

PARIS, Oct. 5.—The U. N. Security Council overrode the Soviets today and voted to discuss the Berlin crisis but Russia and the Ukraine will not participate.
By a vote of 9 to 2, and over violent Soviet objections, the council adopted an agenda embracing the western powers' protest over the Berlin blockade.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky and Dmitri Manuilsky of the Ukraine registered the negative votes and announced they would not take part in the discussions. They charge that the Security Council action violates the charter.

Two Operating Rail Unions In New Agreement

B. Of R. T. And O. R. C. Reach
Agreement With Roads
On Wage Boost

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—(INS)—The possibility that the railroads might ask for further rate increases arose today following the settlement of wage increases between the carriers and two operating unions.

The two unions, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors, reached agreement with the roads yesterday on a 10-cent an hour wage boost.

The agreement, reached in Chicago, was the first settlement of a series of wage negotiations between railroad unions and the carriers.

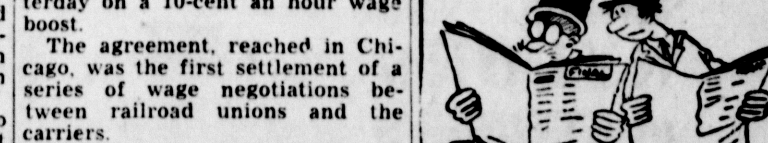

Others Still Negotiating
Sixteen non-operating unions were still negotiating with the railroads for wage hikes. Three other operating unions, the firemen, the locomotive engineers and the switchmen, are also discussing higher wage rates with the operators.

The railroads decided to ask the Interstate Commerce Commission last Sept. 14 for permission to increase freight rates eight per cent. No decision on the request has been handed down by the ICC.

David P. Loomis, the road's negotiating agent, estimated that more than $55,000,000 will be added to the railroads' annual wage bill.

I know the calendar says its fall and the leaves are turning to gold, and a tinge of frost greets the morning sun, and the nights are pre-winter cold. But in spite of this there's a sign I know that tells the fall is around, and that's when the buckeye trees wither and brown and the buckeyes are on the ground. They're not much use for a salad bowl nor mixing some cattle feed, but it's fun to gather them every fall, and use a few for some seed. And the bucks are down and they're loose from their shell, and autumn is well on its way. It's a thing I look for each blessed year, and it's fifty four today.

Dewey To Make Campaign Speech At Pittsburgh

Will Speak In Pittsburgh On Monday, October 11. It Is Announced

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(INS)—GOP Presidential Nominee Thomas E. Dewey will include Pennsylvania in his campaign tour of the nation.

Dewey's campaign manager, Herbert Brownell, Jr., said the New York governor will speak in Pittsburgh the night of Monday, Oct. 11.

Brownell said there was a possibility that Dewey also will deliver a major address in Philadelphia late this month.

GOP leaders from Philadelphia have been pressing the Dewey strategists to include the Quaker City in the Presidential campaign by the New York governor.

Definite announcement on the Dewey Pennsylvania swing will likely be made following conferences at the GOP candidate's farm in Pawling, N. Y., later this week. It was expected, however, that in addition to Pittsburgh, Dewey will move into Erie and visit through the Beaver valley with informal platform speeches along the way to the Steel City.

State GOP chiefs have told Brownell that Dewey should do something to guarantee Pennsylvania's inclusion in the Republican column in November.

started after the pilot flashed the "Mayday" distress signal and shouted that he was "going into the drink." No further contact was established until the plane was sighted.

The Coast Guard ship which located the missing airliner spotted the passengers and crew walking around on the beach and a message crawled on the sand beside the craft. The message read:

"All's well." Coast Guard officers praised the 28-year-old former naval transport pilot for a "remarkable job" in bringing his plane down without injury to the passengers and crew and with little damage to the ship. Miss Ruth Bender, 30, flight stewardess from Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., said the landing "was skillful, perfectly easy and nobody got frightened." She said the passengers took it calmly. She added:

"We sure gave a sigh of relief and let out a cheer when that patrol plane sighted us this afternoon."

The Moore house was owned by Harry Updegraff, it is stated.

Mr. Moore, who owns a tractor-trailer truck, was summoned from a Butler avenue extension parking lot, where he had gone to get his truck and leave on a trip.

The Moore family had only lived in the house for six months, it is stated, having formerly resided in Union township. It is believed that the fire may have started from an electric range, in the kitchen, but firemen were unable to accurately determine the cause.

with Soviet restrictions on its personnel in Russia has been stretched seriously over a long period of time.

Shipments of supplies into Russia for the diplomatic personnel there also are limited strictly. This results in hardships on embassy employees since there is little to be bought on the open market in Moscow.

Soviet officials in the United States are able to buy all ordinary needs on the open market. They need to import only such luxury items as vodka and caviar, and consequently no restrictions imposed by the United States would be felt.

While the United States has imposed restraints on the movements of diplomats of unfriendly powers in the past, such steps are usually taken reluctantly and after any hope of healing the breach is gone.

Paris, Oct. 5.—(INS)—American Delegate Warren R. Austin announced plans today to air in the United Nations political commission Russia's restriction on travel by diplomats in the Soviet Union.

Austin intends to raise the issue tomorrow. He will point out that the new Soviet orders restricting embassy personnel to a radius of 30 miles around Moscow do not conform with previous assertions that embassy staffs could gain all the information wanted on interior Russia if they took the trouble of a nationwide visit.

state but before turning it over to the township road supervisors, a fine blacktop surface was added, leaving the road in excellent condition.

Fine Seeding Program

Continuing the trip to the King's Chapel road, the fine seeding program on the berms and slopes of the newly constructed Route 18 en route to New Wilmington was observed. The cars traversed Route 18 into New Wilmington turning West on Route 278 to the King's Chapel road.

The last 3.16 miles of this road which was in process of construction in 1947 was completed this year making a total improvement of 6.66 miles. This road represents one of the outstanding feats of any maintenance department in the state with large hills penetrated by men and machinery to make a modern road for traffic in that section of the county. This improvement gives motorists better access to Pulaski. One inch of blacktop has been placed on a slag base.

Inspection was made of the resurfacing job on the North Jefferson street hill which has been a vast improvement in the city, cutting traffic noises to a minimum, much to the delight of the residents of that district. The partially completed Grant and Sampson street radius job was examined by the tourists. This job will be complete in a few days.

Inspect Bessemer Job

Traveling out Sampson street over Route 422 through Edenburg to Bessemer, the South Main street improvement was noted. This job was started last year and wound up this season, with some clean-up work still to be done. A one-inch coat of blacktop surface was laid on the slag base as well as some relocation was done.

From Bessemer the trip was made to the Mt. Jackson road where workmen are placing a blacktop surface on the highway from the Pitzer hill through the village, a distance of two and half miles. The road was widened in the village itself to 20 feet. The job will be completed by today.

The former road was in need of much attention and the completed work is a marked improvement for motorists.

Make Change At Wampum

Wampum construction work was the next point of interest. Here a great change has been effected. The work on Clyde street, where a two-inch blacktop was laid has put that road on the map figuratively speaking. A great cut was made on this road. The final piece of road inspected was the change made at West Pittsburgh intersection where the state road joins Taylor township. A fill was made and better approach to the village has been created.

Other projects in process of construction or completed but not inspected include Route 422 east of the city where the road is resurfaced from the city line to Rose Point and a small piece of road in Big Beaver township which was completed early in the season.

Seven-tenths of a mile of road in Chewton in Wayne township has been started but will not be completed until next year.

The two projects done with private contractors were not inspected. These were the Ellwood City road, Route 88, and the steel bridge built over Slippy Rock creek near the Heinz camp. On the Ellwood road, the New Castle Duntlie company is building 19 miles of nine-inch concrete pavement, eliminating a dangerous curve at East New Castle. This road work will be done sometime this month.

County Superintendent Martin is looking ahead to next season when numerous other projects will be started adding more miles of improved roads to the vast county system. The crews at present are getting ready for the winter season, such as installing snow fence and removal of snow.

House Spy Probers Searching For Two Missing Witnesses

By RAYMOND WILCOVE

(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Congressional spy investigators pressed a search today for two missing witnesses whose disappearance has hampered continuation of the Soviet atomic espionage probe.

Rep. McDowell (R-Pa.) revealed that the House un-American Activities Committee has been unable so far to locate the witnesses whose names he refused to divulge.

The Pennsylvania Republican told reporters, however, that they are "important" witnesses whom the committee desires to question as soon as possible. Subpoenas have been issued for them.

If located, they will be questioned behind closed doors along with several other witnesses for whom subpoenas also are being served.

Meanwhile, with the election only four weeks away, the committee virtually decided to forego further public hearings until after the Nov. 2 balloting. Members are busy campaigning for re-election and it is questionable whether a quorum could be obtained for hearings.

Rep. Thomas (R-N. J.), committee chairman, indicated there is a possibility that the House group might issue another report within the next four weeks on its findings.

In honor of the occasion they plan to hold open house on that day from 2 to 4 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening for relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bauder, who have lived in New Castle since 1890, were married in Butler, Pa., October 10, 1888.

Mrs. Bauder is the former Sarah Elizabeth Marshall, daughter of John and Helena Marshall, of Portersville, and Mr. Bauder was born in Portersville, the son of William and Margaret Ann Bauder.

For a period of years the couple made their home on the east side of New Castle before moving to their present home 24 years ago.

Both are members of the Second U. P. church.

Mr. Bauder was employed at the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation plant here for 40 years from the time it was opened until it closed when it was he who rolled the last ingot.

They have three sons, Clarence E. Bauder and Ellsworth G. Bauder, of Youngstown, and Chester H. Bauder, of Washington, D. C. They have six grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. One daughter, Mrs. William Stoughton, is deceased.

BETROTHAL REVEALED AT EVENING SOCIAL

Mr. and Mrs. Wade F. Daugherty, of 422 Park avenue, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Doris Irene Daugherty, and James R. Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Emery, of the Youngstown road.

Entertaining informally in their home Saturday evening for their daughter, announcement of the engagement was made to the two families when each guest found suspended in a miniature wishing well place favor, a tiny golden heart inscribed "Doris and James."

Refreshments were served from a table centered with a wishing well and tall lighted candles. On the buffet a silver swan filled with flowers on a mirror added to the decorations for the occasion.

Games offered diversion during the evening.

Mrs. Walter R. Emery aided the hosts.

Miss Daugherty, a graduate of New Castle high school and the Stenotype Institute in Pittsburgh, is employed in the office of She-nango Pottery.

Her fiancé, who graduated from Union high school, is employed in the metallurgical department of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company.

The engagement will terminate in a wedding.

Anti-Communist Sentiment Rising Among Berliners

General Clay Reports Change Developing Among Berlin's
Working PopulationBy OMER ANDERSON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—Gen. Lucius D. Clay reported today that anti-Communist sentiment is rising among Berlin's working population. The military governor's semi-monthly report also stated that Western Germany's industrial production set a post-war record in August.

Meanwhile, the Russians continued to hurl new threats at the Allied airlift.

Clay said industrial output rose 8 per cent over July, and equalled 67 per cent of the pre-war year 1936.

Anti-Red Feeling Grows
Regarding growing anti-Communist feeling among Germans, Clay cited growing interest in the non-Communist U. G. O. trade union.

Soviet concern over this, the general added, was reflected in their banning of the U. G. O. in their sector of Berlin.

Clay's report pointed out that the non-Communist union's dues had increased by one-third from August to September.

Deputy Soviet Administrator Lieut. Gen. M. I. Dravlin charged airlift pilots with 742 violations of "the most elementary air safety regulations" and warned of "serious consequences."

New Russian Threats
At the same time airlift pilots were on the alert for new Russian anti-aircraft along the air corridors to Berlin.

The Soviets said they would practice firing at towed sleeve targets through the 40-mile stretch from Koethen, just north of the main U. S. Frankfurt-Berlin corridor, to Magdeburg, south of the British Buckeburg-Berlin airline.

Dravlin, in a letter to U. S. and British officials, said that the alleged western violations of air safety rules came between August 20 and October 1. He charged the British with 656 violations and the U. S. with 86.

The letter declared: "This lack of discipline is causing a very dangerous situation which can lead to serious consequences."

He demanded "immediate measures" to halt the alleged violations.

Seven Teachers Staging Strike

Nine Of Blythe Township Teachers
Try To Keep School
Going

NEW PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 5.—(INS)—School bells clanged as usual in Blythe township today despite a strike of seven of the township's 16 teachers.

The striking teachers, including football coach Frank Rompa, remained away from their classes because they have been unpaid since last March.

Nine teachers who stayed at their posts kept the school open and running for 350 pupils.

Want Back Pay
Each of the teachers is owed about $1400 in back pay.

Supervising Principal James B. Nash said the state had approved money for the back pay and that it would be paid shortly.

The rebellious instructors, however, insisted on an additional guarantee of regular pay checks on regular pay days in the future.

Nash said "we're making the best of the circumstances" and added that the football team would play out its schedule with or without Rompa.

The township has been left in serious financial straits because of an unsettled argument over taxes for which several coal companies are held liable.

SMALL FOOD CLOSETS
The housekeeper of today does not store great quantities of food. The telephone and delivery trucks have done away with the necessity. In consequence the butler's pantry, huge food closets and large pantries are poor investments in the small house.

Paralysis Victim Gives Birth To Son

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 5.—(INS)—A five-pound, eight-ounce son born to a 29-year-old mother being treated for infantile paralysis was "doing fine" today at the Lancaster General hospital.

The baby was born yesterday to Mrs. Jacob Gockly of Lititz, who was admitted to the hospital isolation ward with a mild case of poliomyelitis September 30, the hospital disclosed. Mrs. Gockly has two other sons, aged four and eight.

Child With Rare Skin Disease To Have 'Home' School

CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 5.—(INS)—Seven-year-old Bonnie Lou Norwood, of Chester, is going to school this fall—and the class will be held in her home.

Bonnie is suffering from a rare disease that causes her skin to break open at the slightest bump. As a result, the Chester Board of Education has agreed to send a teacher to her home, so that Bonnie won't have to leave the house while she learns her three R's.

The youngster has only one layer of skin instead of the normal three. More than 500 stitches have been taken in her body to close up the cuts that have resulted from bumps and falls.

Bonnie's mother, Mrs. Ethel Norwood, has taken her to a number of hospitals in Chester and Philadelphia for treatment.

"Her case is so bad," Mrs. Norwood said, "that we can't even use adhesive tape on her when she has a skin break. The tape just pulls the rest of her skin off."

Underground Fire Damages Homes

GREENSBURG, Pa., Oct. 5.—(INS)—Mine inspectors reported today that excavation at a cost in excess of $50,000 appeared to be the only hope of stopping an underground fire in the Lloydsville-West Latrobe area which already has damaged three homes through ground sinking.

Inspector C. B. Lozaw said that the fire has been burning for more than two years in an old mine works and is believed to have spread in all directions.

In addition to the three damaged homes, the blaze has also been blamed for breaking water lines, damaging gas pipes and spreading fumes throughout the area.

SOCIETY & ClubsWoman's Club Luncheon Opens
Year; Marion F. Smith Speaks

New Castle Woman's club opened its 1948-49 season with a luncheon in the New Castle Country club on Monday afternoon.

Club officers were hostesses. Luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock at long tables decorated with flowers in the club colors of blue and gold, yellow dahlias, blue bachelor buttons, and gold and yellow marigolds entwined with sprays of ivy. Autumn leaves and ivy banded the mantels of the stone fireplace at either end of the living room. Covers were laid for more than 180.

Heard as speaker was Marion Foster Smith, of Saxenburg, whose subject was "A Poem for Every Turn in the Road", and she cited and quoted from poems of varying types and for varying moods. Introduced by Mrs. Ralph A. Cooper, chairman of the program committee, the speaker opened by saying "There are poems for all the ills of mind and body". There are poems to soothe fear, to tickle the funny bone, for insomnia, to stimulate the imagination, and to curb impatience. Latter part of her talk was an imaginative trip on an April day, a delightful fantasy in poetry.

Soloist of the afternoon was

Mrs. Ross D. Rosenberger who, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Paul Welsh, sang "My Love Is a Blossom", "Dawn", and "Who'll Buy My Lavender".

To open the program, Mrs. C. R. Brenner, president, read the Clubwoman's Creed and in her address of welcome at the close of luncheon she stressed the power of organized women to tackle and solve the problems of the day. "Shall we be silent in these urgent hours?" she queried.

During business, a proposed amendment to Article III, Section 1 of the by-laws was read and will be voted on at a future meeting.

Dates for departmental meetings, international relations, fine arts and conservation garden, were announced and members were reminded of the Community Chest drive. Mrs. David Nesbitt is community social service chairman for the club.

Flowers for the luncheon were arranged by members of the conservation garden department. Mrs. Andrew Dietterle chairman, Mrs. Thomas G. Allen, co-chairman.

Next meeting will be November 8 in Highland U. P. church at 2 p. m. when Cy Hungerford will be the speaker.

Mrs. Richard Sisley, who conducted devotionals, introduced Dr. J. Paul Graham, minister of the Third U. P. church, as the main speaker. Dr. Graham gave an inspiring talk on the theme, "Youth of the Church" and stressed the value of camps for young people. He spoke of the perils of youth, the plans and program for young people, and closed by making a plea to the group for support of activities for boys and girls. During a question and answer period Dr. Graham told about Camp Lam-bec, owned by the seven presbyteries of the First Synod of the West of the U. P. church.

Mrs. Irvine Balph and Mrs. J. A. Sommer offered prayer. Group singing was enjoyed, with Mrs. Jay L. Reed as accompanist.

Union Township Firemen Called To Three Fires

Blaze Of Unknown Origin Destroys Unoccupied Dwelling This Morning

Union Township Volunteer Firemen had an unusually busy time Monday evening and early this morning, when they responded to three fire calls within the township. Two of the blazes were of a minor nature and were in automobiles, while the third one was found in an unoccupied cottage on West Washington street extension.

Car Is Afire
At 7 p. m. Monday evening, the fire fighters were called to the intersection of Scotland Lane and route 224 where they found the car of E. Daltorio of 914 South Mill street ablaze. A short circuit in the battery cable fired the car. Upholstery in the front seat and other parts of the front of the car were damaged to the extent of $25.00.

Hardly had the firemen gotten their truck into the garage when at 7:20 p. m., they were called to West Washington street extension to extinguish a fire in the car of Reynolds Alley, 21 Bluff street. Overflowing gasoline on the manifold caused the motor and wiring to burn resulting in a loss of approximately $20.00.

Small Cottage Burns
The final call of the department was received at 3:30 a. m. this morning to West Washington street extension, near the Washington grade school, where they found an unoccupied cottage afire. Having gained some headway, the firemen were unable to save the home. Two tanks of water were poured onto the blazing inferno.

No one in the district knows the owner of the building, who used it for a storage shed for tools. The owner is believed to be a home nearby and kept his materials in the cottage. The cottage and contents are a complete loss. An effort is being made to contact the owner of the property who is said to live in Lowellville, Ohio.

Firemen placed no estimate on the damage but the loss in the home blaze will amount to more than a thousand dollars.

Soviet Parachute Jumping Brings British Protest

Russian Fliers Jumping From Altitudes Of 2,500 Feet West Of Berlin

BERLIN, Oct. 5.—(INS)—The Soviet air force staged parachute jumps near the Hamburg-Berlin airlift corridor today, resulting in a sharp British protest.

Russian fliers jumped from an altitude of about 2,500 feet near Nauen, west of Berlin.

This city is near the joint where the Buckeburg-Ketzin and Hamburg-Berlin air corridors meet.

Both channels are used by British planes participating in the supply operations to Berlin which the Soviets have been harassing in one manner or another for months.

Violates Rules

British authorities said the parachute-jumping violates air safety rules. The Soviets posted a notice at the Air Safety Center that the jumping demonstration would take place over a two-hour period but the notice went up 10 minutes after the tests began.

The latest Soviet air activities in the corridor regions apparently were confined to British routes. United States fliers did not report seeing any paratroopers in or near their "operation rittles" corridor.

muslim refugees from riot-ravaged parts of Pakistan. A scheme to build 12 towns in East Punjab has been sanctioned by the government to accommodate refugees. It is expected to cost $7,500,000. Nearly 2,000,000 refugees have been set-led by the government on land and in jobs. Others have settled themselves in business with the money they had brought with them. Only about a million more remain to be rehabilitated.

Court House

E. R. Bradley Case On Argument List

Late Owner Of Idle Hour
Farm Figures In Case
Filed Here

OTHER EVENTS

IN COURT HOUSE

The name of one of America's most famous horsemen, Edward R. Bradley, entered the records of the Lawrence County court Monday.

In argument court before Judges W. Walter Braham and John G. Lamoree a realty case filed by John R. Bradley, executor of the late Edward R. Bradley estate was argued.

The case is filed against A. Darrell Burke, of New Castle, a relative of the late horseman, and concerns occupancy of the business premises now occupied by Mr. Burke, on North Jefferson street. Under the terms of the will, probated in Florida, the executor is authorized to sell real estate holdings. Mr. Bradley purchased a property on North Jefferson street in 1929 from the Eichbaum estate. Mr. Burke has occupied it since.

Counsel for the plaintiff argued that it was impossible to sell the property unless possession could be secured and that Mr. Burke refused to vacate. There are several fine points of law in the case, one of them whether the executor who is acting under Florida law has the authority to sell Pennsylvania property. Another is whether or not Mr. Burke has an equity in the property.

The Idle Hour Farm in Kenucky is one of the most famous in the world. From it came such Kentucky Derby winners as Black Gold, Bubbling Over, Broker's Tip, Bold Venture, to name a few.

It is said that as a young man Mr. Bradley worked in New Castle in the Old Mill. This has never been definitely verified but is thought to be true. He died in 1946.

VFW Is Campaigning Against Wholesale Halloween Vandalism

HARRISBURG, Oct. 5.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Veterans of Foreign Wars today launched a campaign against halloween vandalism. The organization's more than 800 local posts were urged to sponsor halloween parties, parades and other activities to "keep children off the streets."

State Commander Hiram V. Hartman stressed prevention of "innocent vandalism" such as window soaping and mischief that sometimes leads to arrest for window breaking. The first arrest could lead to juvenile delinquency, he contended.

"I have suggested that posts sponsor parties, parades, make arrangements with local movies for special rates and a comic or special halloween program," Hartman reported.

He urged cooperation with service organization, chambers of commerce, businessmen, parent-teachers' organizations, community officials and police and firemen's organizations.

Patricia was pardoned by President Ramon Grau San Martin for the fatal shooting of John Lester Mee, wealthy Chicago attorney, on his yacht in Havana harbor April 8, 1947.

Her release was held up by the delay in publication of the pardon decree in Cuba's official Gaceta. She had been sentenced to a prison term of 15 years.

MR. EMPLOYER— It's Good Business To Hire The Handicapped

*Throughout the United States the Disabled
Have Included Presidents and Lawmakers*

In almost every community—there are men and women who are commonly referred to as "handicapped" persons. They have varying degrees of disabilities. Some of them are veterans of one or both world wars; others are persons who have suffered disabilities in accidents—some are the victims of disease or injuries at birth. Many of the world's great men and women have been handicapped, and some of them have towered above their neighbors.

They have embraced authors, poets, lecturers, inventors and composers. They have included millions of people who, in shops, offices, fields and factories, do all kinds of work to earn their living.

There was Steinmetz, a giant in the field of invention. His employer, conscious of his potentialities, paid no heed to his disability. This world, as a result, gained splendid achievements from this man who was handicapped from birth.

Recall those handicapped persons YOU KNOW who have made great contributions in modern history. Such a list certainly will include Beethoven, the composer; Sarah Bernhardt, the actress; Byron, the poet; Thomas A. Edison, the inventor of the electric bulb and phonograph; Helen Keller, the author-lecturer, and others.

But for each of them there are millions of handicapped men and women who, in industry, business, agriculture, and government, are making splendid day-in-day-out contributions in their communities and fields of employment.

SURVEYS HAVE PROVED THAT HANDICAPPED WORKERS ARE:

- Safe workers.
- Absent from jobs less than others.
- More efficient workers.
- Persons who stay on the job.

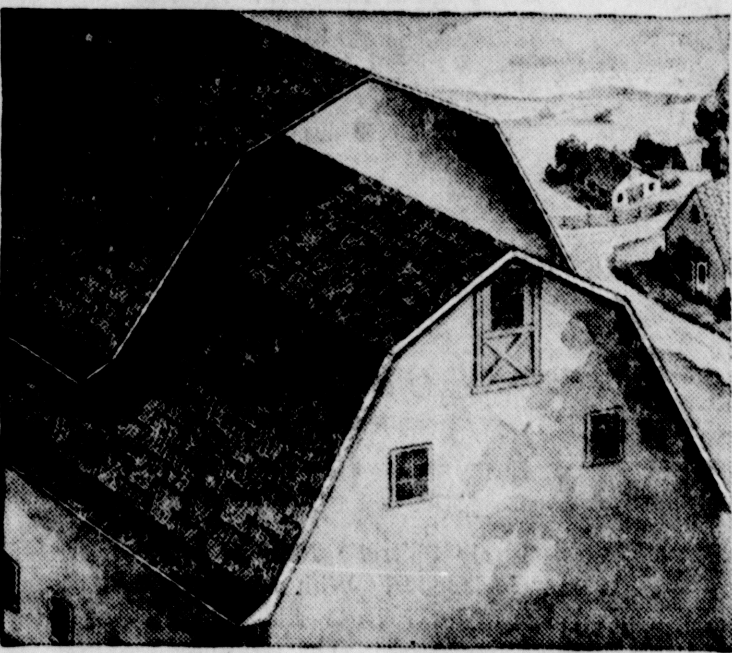

If You Need Workers

Practically any job can be filled by some physically handicapped worker. Ability of the individual impaired job applicant—his skills, experience, and physical capacity—must be weighed against the requirements of the specific job. BUT THIS IS TRUE IN THE PLACEMENT OF ANY INDIVIDUAL, not just an impaired person. When you have jobs to fill, get in touch with the State Employment Office, Citizens Bank Building, New Castle, Pa.

Morgan J. Jones Had Busy 46 Years With Railroad

Morgan J. Jones completed 46 years of continuous service for the Pennsylvania Railroad September 30.

Discussing his life-long career as a railroad man, Mr. Jones proudly recalled that although he had worked in many capacities in many different capacities he had never missed a pay day because of ill health.

Born June 13, 1878, on a farm in Jackson county, O., Mr. Jones was one of eight children. He attended public school in the county of his birth and then taught country school for three years before enrolling at Ohio Northern University. Having received a bachelor's degree in civil engineering in 1902, Mr. Jones was employed by the Pennsylvania railroad in Pittsburgh as a rodman in the engineering corps.

Given Promotion

After five years Mr. Jones was promoted to transit man at Altoona. Thirteen months later he was made an assistant supervisor at Irwin, in Clearfield county. A similar position was held in Blairsville, Trafford City and Tyrone. In 1914 Mr. Jones was made supervisor at Warren, Pa., and later held the same job in DuBois and Titusville. During the war years and government operation of the railroads Mr. Jones worked in the evaluation department.

As a supervisor, Mr. Jones was responsible for the maintenance of large portions of railroad track. He had charge of several section gangs and wreck crews. It was in this capacity that he had some of his most vivid railroad experience. One of these was a bad accident 20 miles east of Pittsburgh. A fast express train engine was derailed and rolled down a 40 foot embankment. A carload of 18 horses and five grooms rolled down the embankment on top of the engine and all were killed with the exception of one horse. When Mr. Jones and his wreck crews arrived on the scene, the surviving animal was running up and down the track unharmed.

Came Here in 1929

In March of 1929, Mr. Jones was transferred from supervisor at Titusville to chief draughtsman at E. and A. division offices in New Castle. He held this position until retirement last week. His fellow employees honored Mr. Jones with a dinner and nice gift for his many years of valuable service.

Mr. Jones is an elder of the First Presbyterian church and a member of the Masonic order. He is also an active golfer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones are proud of their two sons. William is a salesman in Elmhurst, Ill., and Morgan is serving as a warrant officer in the army at Liverpool, England.

When asked about plans for the future, Mr. Jones, with hearty concurrence by his wife, said that he would be doing some work around their lovely new home on the East Brook road, which they purchased six weeks ago. Other plans include visiting his many friends in the area, improving the golf score and motoring to Florida.

When Herbert Hoover became president of the United States, he received 28 degrees, nine of them from European universities.

Methodist Official Board Meets Monday

Decide To Again Sponsor Ward Scout Troop; Seek Scoutmaster To Fill Vacancy

At Mahoning Methodist church, the official board of the church, gathered on Monday evening, with Leonard Blasdel, presiding. Regular business of the church was considered, and reports received. Gaiser, pastor of First Methodist will speak on the World Council of Churches at Amsterdam, and reenact the program of that gathering at Amsterdam.

The matter of again sponsoring the Boy Scouts organization of the ward was discussed. At the request of the chairman of the Boy Scout committee, Wendell McClurg it was agreed to acquiesce, and suggested that officials of the church cooperate with the scout committee at their meetings.

Robert Olmstead, former scoutmaster, having re-enlisted in U. S. armed service, the committee is seeking a qualified man to fill the vacancy.

Girl Scout Series Of Training Opens

Enthusiasm marked the initial meeting of the Girl Scout training course Monday evening in the auditorium of the Y.W.C.A. A well-filled room of leaders and assistant leaders showed the interest and need for such sessions. This is the first time in three years that any one who is qualified to teach such a course has been available.

Miss Irene R. Kirchner, New Brighton, who is in charge of instruction, proved an inspiration to all present. In an informal manner she presented a basic field troop outline. Miss Kirchner stressed the fine essentials of a scout troop. The New Brighton instructor taught two folk dances and a square dance at the opening assembly.

Following a question and answer period, several games were enjoyed. Miss Alice Welter instructed the group in spatter painting.

In addition to New Castle residents many were present from New Wilmington and Mt. Jackson.

The series will continue Monday evening, October 11, at 7:30 o'clock in the same place with Miss Kirchner presiding.

Governor Warren Makes Address At Pittsburgh

Tells Audience U.S. Faces 'Two-Fold Challenge'; Introduced By Governor Duff

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Gov. Earl Warren warned today that the United States faces a "two-fold challenge—the threat of aggression and inflation."

The Republican vice-presidential nominee told some 3,600 persons at Pittsburgh's Syria Mosque last night that the situation today is no less challenging and no less dangerous than "the one we faced in 1940."

"Dictatorship, hard-driving, far reaching, is on the march today just as it was in 1940. In preparation the nation must be strong and free."

The Californian declared that "all-out production, equal to our every need is the only cure for high prices and inflation."

Warren, who was introduced by Pennsylvania Governor Duff as he climaxed a whirlwind tour of the Keystone state, continued his non-partisan approach to national problems when he said:

"I am not one of those who believes that all virtue flows from one party and all evil from the other. But the Republican party is the party of 1948 best able to lead and which offers the best hopes."

Pleads Guilty To Pocketbook Thefts At Chewton Hall

Harold Derrow, 34, Wampum, R. D. 1, pleaded guilty before Peace Justice Frank Miles, Wampum, yesterday to the larceny of several pocketbooks containing about $200, from the White Eagle hall, Chewton, one week ago, Friday night.

The pocketbooks were the property of Mrs. Renner Stabryle and three sister-in-laws. They were taken during a celebration following the wedding of Mrs. Stabryle, Ellwood City police arrested Derrow.

State police swore to the charges against him.

Derrow is also held on a charge of violating a parole from the Western Penitentiary where he was serving time for forgery, state police report.

An iron meteor that fell in Asia Minor was worshiped by the Phoenicians as Cybele, mother of the gods.

'Problem Girl' In Relative's Care

Miss Phyllis Rubino, East Lutton street, New Castle's "problem girl", is en route to a new home in Ohio today, following her arrest by city police Monday in a Butler avenue restaurant.

Today she appeared before Mayor John F. Haven in police court to answer a charge of disorderly conduct.

The mayor talked quietly to the 19-year-old girl, pointing out the folly of her ways, meanwhile giving her some good solid advice.

In the courtroom was a relative from Ohio who said she would be willing to assume charge of the girl and attempt to pilot her in such a manner the girl would not become involved in future escapades.

Mayor Haven asked the young girl if she would be willing to go to live with her relative and the girl answered affirmatively.

The mayor discharged the girl, who is now en route to Ohio.

Assistant Fire Chief William Bowen will address the club in Fire Hazards and Fire Prevention at the noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton Wednesday noon. Along with Mr. Bowen's talk, motion pictures on how fires start and fire prevention measures.

Make Gains In Registration

Reports Of Voter Registration
In State Show Gains
In Some Counties

OTHER NEWS OF STATE ACTIVITIES

HARRISBURG, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Substantial registration gains in some counties indicates voting enthusiasm is catching on. Forty-three of the state's 67 counties have sent their 1948 figures to the State Elections Bureau. Gains by Republicans and Democrats over 1944 enrollments were noted in three counties, Adams, Lancaster and Huntingdon. Four counties reported Republican gains over four years ago at the expense of Democrats. They are Dauphin, Juniata, Lebanon and Northumberland counties. Perry county revealed a registration drop from 1944 for both parties while Union county registered a Democratic gain at the expense of the GOP. In Philadelphia Republicans rose while Democrats declined. The Quaker City's GOP registrants grew from 641,624 to 749,320 while the Democratic enrollment fell from 385,487 to 290,985. In Dauphin county, Republicans picked up 15,475 voters and Democrats dropped 1386. In Lancaster county, GOP gains were far heavier than those of the Democrats.

The Democratic State Committee has issued a 58-page mimeographed speech-making guide for legislative candidates. It contains 18 different points on which candidates may speak, but speakers may elaborate and insert their own ideas, the pamphlet explains. Topping the list are the Republican record, labor program, schools, the $200,000,000 "surplus" of U. S. Sen. Edward Martin as governor FEPC, teachers' retirement, platform commitments, the State Senate's "special interest" lobby. Republican tax bills, community property law, the Public Utility and Milk Control Commissions and State Liquor Control Board.

Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller, Democratic national committeewoman from Pennsylvania, is schooling Democratic women in "campaign approach" while working for the election of President Truman. Her chief hint for persuasive argument appears in the "survey" publication of the Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women's Clubs. She maintains housewives interest in high prices and shortages exceeds their interest in Republican probing. "No Communist clues or scares will make the housewife forget the high cost of living, nor the veteran the lack of a home, nor the little business man the danger of inflation, nor the worker the injustices of the Taft-Hartley Act, nor the farmer the Republican plan to destroy his security by abolishing price support," she asserts.

Pennsylvania's 46 third class cities spent $1,619,468 for recreation during 1946, a new survey indicates. The report, issued by the Department of Internal Affairs shows largest expenditures were for parks, playgrounds and swimming facilities. For swimming alone, the cities gave $1.1 per cent of the money, the department said. Twenty of them have pools and bathing beaches within their boundaries.

An attractive pictorial pamphlet in color has been published by the state to illustrate its Schuylkill river desilting program. The booklet shows vividly the filthy, clogged condition of the water and dredging underway to free the stream. It also contains pictures of recreational areas of the type the department hopes to spot along the Schuylkill.

Decision Made By Vote Of 9 To 2

Send tomorrow's two council meetings or would boycott the organization physically as well as verbally. In announcing his refusal to participate, Vishinsky said: "The Soviet government in its note of Oct. 3 pointed out that statements by the United States, Great Britain and France to the effect that a threat to international peace existed has no foundation. The Soviet government's note indicated that the United States, Great Britain and France had ignored their obligations to submit the question to the council of foreign ministers for consideration and settlement."

"The Soviet delegation wishes to state in the name of the Soviet government that adoption by the majority of the Security Council of the present item for consideration constitutes a violation of article 107 according to which such a question should be decided upon by the powers responsible for the occupation of Germany."

Will Not Participate

"Accordingly the Soviet delegation will not participate in the discussion."

After making his statement, Vishinsky leaned back in his chair, exhaled deeply and audibly and showed every sign of a relief from a great strain. He gathered his papers and conferred with Manulsky, who then made a similar statement.

Delegates of the western powers plainly were shocked by the irrevocable Soviet and Ukrainian decision. Questioned by International News Service, Vishinsky said: "There is no secret about our action. I can say nothing more than I said to the Security Council."

"Tomorrow we shall see what happens." Chairman Juan Atilio Brambila of Argentina called for the vote after Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky had registered his government's strongest objections.

He claimed that Security Council consideration of the Berlin impasse is "impossible and incorrect."

Cast Negative Votes

The negative votes were cast by Soviet Russia and the Ukraine. Vishinsky and Dmitri Manulsky, Ukrainian delegate, announced they would not participate in the Berlin discussions on the grounds the western protest against the blockade is a violation of the U. N. charter.

The council then adjourned until tomorrow, when there will be two sessions. Vishinsky denied during the session that any blockade is in effect in Berlin. He accused the western powers of lacking any desire for a peaceful settlement.

Delaware Mental Rate Is Higher Than Any State

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 5.—(INS)—Four of every 100 Delaware school children will eventually suffer from a mental ailment serious enough to require hospitalization. That's the opinion of Col. H. Edmund Bullis, executive director of the Delaware State Society for Mental Hygiene.

"Out of that same group of 100 school children, another child will become delinquent and eight more will become adults with nervous breakdowns—unhappy, always maladjusted and frequently inefficient," Bullis added.

Nathan Hayward, president of the society, pointed out that there are more mental bed-patients in the Delaware State hospital at Farnhurst than the combined total of patients in all other hospitals in the state.

Around Hollywood

By RUTH BRIGHAM
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Adam and Eve set the precedent. And Hollywood is carrying on. All the world loves a lover.

Romantic twosomes have abounded in history and fiction: All the way from Anthony and Cleopatra, Tristan and Isolde, to Edward and Wally.

They pay off at the box office. Any film notable worth his swimming pool can predict to the last "ah" or "ooh" the audience reaction to greet Garson-Walter Pidgeon, William Powell-Myrna Loy or June Allyson-Van Johnson.

Wally and Marjorie. But when you stop to think that screen teams got their initial silent day impulse from Valentino and Jean Acker, and later from Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky, now explain the popularity of Wallace Berry and Marjorie Main.

The "lovebirds" are enjoying their sixth celluloid romance, in MGM's "Big Jack".

Beery has a simple explanation. He said: "We're the poor man's Romeo and Juliet. Just folks."

In their new film, the "folks" sport no fancy clothes or glamorous settings. As in their previous hits, "Wyoming", "Bad Bascomb" and "Rationing", they follow a homespun pattern as early 19th Century bandit and his tobacco-chavin companion in love and larceny.

The Fans Love It. Teaming of, say, Clark Gable and Lana Turner, guarantees romance and action. Berry and Main the man on the streets dreamboats, add two other ingredients—laughter, and down-to-earth quality everyone understands.

A Berry-Main screen romance poses no problems. There's a fool-proof formula—fight, argue, bicker and swing skillet for three-quarters of the film. Comes the fade-out—true love triumphant.

Money Counts. Unlike Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, the Berry-Main duo never become a quartet. Unlike Garson-Pidgeon, they seldom evoke a sigh or sob.

"It's laughter and love that make the world go round," they declare. "Cupid with a chuckle."

And, say their studios, that makes the box office pay. Berry makes more money than anybody at MGM.

DO YOU KNOW?

Each year in this country, 50,000 couples marry who cannot have children, and there are always 2,000,000 couples who are involuntarily childless.

Expect Doyle-Moran To Stage Good Fight

Doyle's Manager Writes That Doyle Tosses Punches Every Minute He's In Ring And Moran Can Expect A Rough Time Wednesday Night.

Possibility is bright for the Frankie Moran, New Castle, vs. Martin Doyle, Birmingham, eight-round fight Wednesday night in The Arena, being a knock-down drag-em-out affair, according to Merle Richards, manager of Doyle, who scored a TKO over Russell Baxter in Windsor, Ont., several weeks ago. Moran and the South-erner are welterweights, or 147-pounders.

Due to the fact that Billy Pozza battles Petie Graham, Bobby Neal punches with Ted Bussey, Les Leasure wallops with Duke Peaks and Bill Bradley tosses punches with Mickie London, The Arena is expected to be crowded before the first fight starts at 8:30 p. m.

"Doyle is a good crowd pleaser. He throws punches every minute he is in the ring. He often goes out of his class and has met some of the best boys in the country," Richards writes, adding that of 103 fights he has won 78.

Doyle Nobody's "Foot" He has fought Jake LaMotta, Bill Martin, Pete Meade, Sugar Costner, Willie Russell, Jim Sher-rer, Gene Boland, Norman Butts, Bill Stemmer, Major Brown, Charlie Padalino, Babe Sanders, Cliff Beckett (who has fought several times in Youngstown) and Dean Thompson.

"Doyle is nobody's 'foot' and Moran is in for a rough time," is the tip-off from Richards.

Relative to Petie Graham, Detroit heavyweight, who boxes Billy Pozza, Richards claims he is a good preliminary boy who has won his six pro fights. He may lack the experience to cope with the heavy-hitting Ellwood City fighter, but of Bussey, Detroit, Richards says he is a "great" puncher. They are welterweights.

Two City Scrappers Les Leasure has won all his pro fights and takes on Duke Peaks, Youngstown, at 155, while Koppel's main fistic ace, Mickie London, will punch with Bill Bradley, at 160, who also has had a run of success in Detroit vicinity.

The main bout is listed for eight rounds, the semi-final and Neal-Bussey fights for six rounds. The first two encounters are limited to four rounds.

Moran ended training this afternoon for Wednesday night's fight while the Detroit boys are expected to arrive early Wednesday, weigh in, be examined, then rest until 7:30 p. m. when the doors open in The Arena, and they'll repair to the dressing-rooms to prepare for their fights.

Boudreau, Bearden Lead Tribe In 8-3 Clinching Victory

Cleveland Has First American League Flag In 28 Years; First For Boston Braves In 34 Years; Great Series Will Start Wednesday In Staid Old Beantown; Johnny Sain Will Oppose Bob Feller In First Game.

By DAVIS J. WALSH
(International News Service Staff Writer)

BOSTON, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Hardy, old, bop-happy Boston, where life nowadays is real and very sudden, came bouncing jauntily back into the emotional nip-ups and hand-stands of a World Series eve today—with faith and hope commendably renewed. Charity was quite another kettle of navy-bean soup, of course.

For the Boston Braves and Cleveland Indians were to engage tomorrow in baseball's grapple, called the World series, and the only thing charitable about it is the fact that chilblains are treated free at all out-patient clinics.

Sain vs. Feller

In no immediate need of medical attention, however, were those durable souls who got quite a warm-up while ganging the windows for last night's 2,500 sale of standing-room "seats" at Braves field.

This indicated a total attendance of more than 43,000 when Boston pitcher Johnny Sain takes ball in hand at 1:30 clock tomorrow to open the famous seven-game ritual in quite the immemorial manner. He probably will be opposed by Bob Feller.

See Heavy Series Swag

But more important—and materialistic—was Cleveland's projected 85,000 daily capacity and the fact that a new record in series swag was in the making, provided the promotion went to its seven-game maximum.

If so, Boston, site of the first two and last two games, would be in for another of its civic connipions but, by this time, the rugged, old town is getting used to the strain.

As matters stood, its happiness was tinged by the melancholy might-have-beens of yesterday's big American league championship playoff game, a rather depressing occasion locally.

The natives fondly regarded it in advance as no more than a necessary prelude to the consummation of a cherished but long deferred dream—an all-Boston world series. In fulfillment, it became a nightmarish debacle whose effect, 24 hours later, was still being felt.

These were so far beyond, in fact, that Cleveland, supposedly teetering on its heels, swung one from the ground to kyo the Red Sox by an 8-3 count. It wasn't close after Lou Boudreau's second homer. In fact, it wasn't even approximate.

Boston was permanently impressed, and promptly proved it, first, by tacitly making the Indians a pre-series favorite over the National League Braves. Second, by setting out to "fire" Joe McCarthy as manager of the discomfited Red Sox. That's how spontaneous things can get in this impulsive area.

Climb On McCarthy At that, there could be no doubt that McCarthy was being roundly abused for his choice of Denny Galehouse as starting pitcher, instead of young and infinitely better Mel Parnell.

They were still gabbling indignantly about that today, to the detriment of the Braves' first world series in 34 years. The inference was that Boston had less esteem for the Braves, in success, than it had for the Sox, in final failure.

Stage Workouts Both clubs were to work out at Braves field today in a dress-rehearsal for the big show tomorrow. Manager Boudreau was to put the official scrutiny on Feller and Bob Lemon, as first-game pitching alternatives—with Gene Bearden's greatness yesterday much too recent to bear repetition before the third game.

CHICAGO BEARS SQUELCH CARDS

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—(INS)—The Chicago Cardinals' gaudy eight-game winning streak lay spent and fractured today, cleft by a devastating Bears' football team that struck like the Bears of old.

The largest crowd in Chicago's long and exciting professional football history—an overflow 52,765—saw the game at Comiskey park last night.

The final score was 28 to 17, good enough by far to place the Bears solidly atop the western division standings in the National Football league—a position which they may never relinquish.

Not a single Pennsylvania boxer was listed by the National Boxing Association today as an "outstanding challenger" for world's title in any weight division.

Contend Mills

"Running Out"

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(INS)—The Tournament of Champions, long accused of being a lightweight championship, is running out on his agreement to fight Gus Lesnevich.

Mills won his title from Lesnevich in London, July 26. A Tournament of Champions spokesman said Mills signed contracts with the T. of C. agreeing to give Lesnevich a return bout in the United States, Sept. 23.

Mills later claimed he was ill. After an exchange of wires, the Tournament of Champions was informed that Mills had recovered but had arranged for a fight with Johnny Ralph in South Africa.

Altman and Latsko Each Score In First Junior Varsity Game For Locals

New Castle Junior Varsity under the direction of Coach George Binder defeated Ursuline Junior Varsity of Youngstown 24 to 6 Monday afternoon at Taggart Stadium.

Dick Altman, right halfback for the "little Red Hurricanes" turned in two sensational long runs of 70 and 78 yards. The 70 yarder came on the kickoff after Ursuline had scored on a 40-yard pass play. Altman received the ball on an exchange and scampered 70 yards for the game's final score.

Latsko Tallies Twice

Fullback Ray Latsko also scored twice for the JVs. He made the first touchdown of the game on a 10 yard smash through center and hit over the same place from the 2 yard line for the third six pointer.

Ray Nolte, Sam Richards and Dave Jones were the officials for the game.

New Castle boys participating in the first JV game of the season are Lewis, Regan, Bucci, Charles, Bender, King, DeFallo, Sansone, Perrino, D. Altman, Latsko, Cugini, DeLillo, Wynn, Audino, Sandullo, Fornataro, Crowe, Chandik, Cagliardo, Rose, White, Hoover, Richard, Marinelli, Cangli and Diverder.

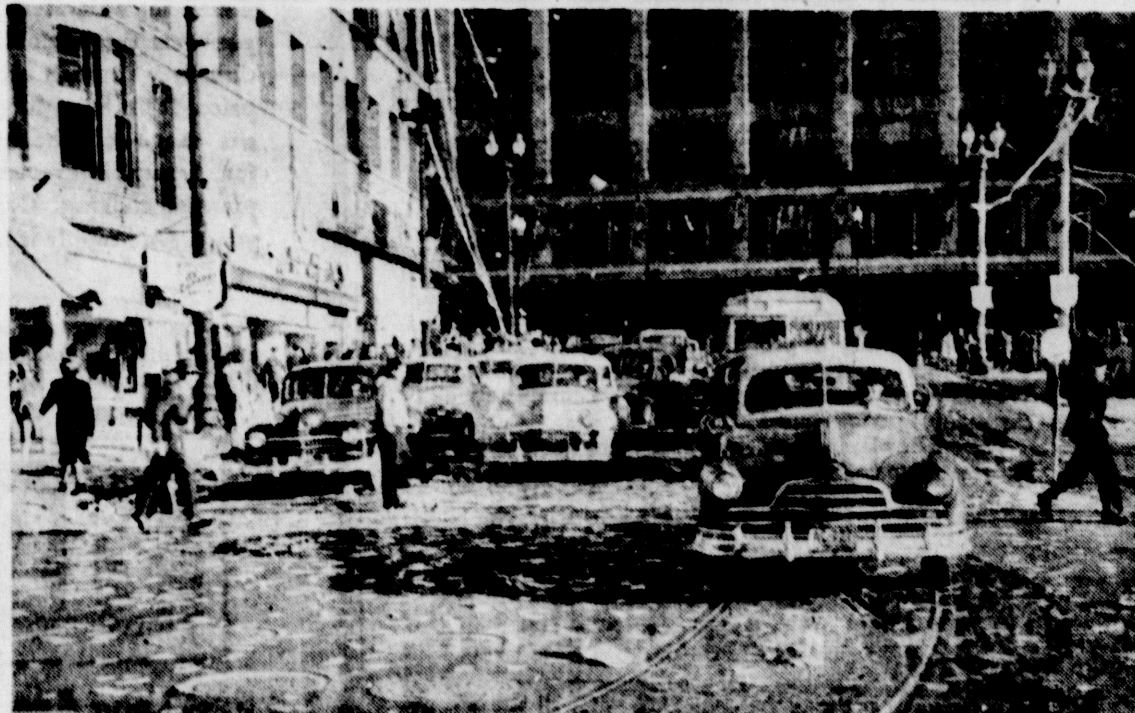

Japanese Baseball Player Draws Fine

TOKYO, Oct. 5.—(INS)—A Japanese baseball player has been found guilty of violating the Japan Professional Baseball League rules by using a laminated bamboo bat instead of wood.

He was fined 27 cents. Hiroshi Oshita, who with an .278 average ranks high as a slugger by Japanese standards, made a hit with a home-made bamboo bat in game played in Tokyo.

After being fined, Oshita hit his fourteenth home run of the season using a regulation bat. For that he got a 1,000-yen bonus, of $3.70. He promptly paid the fine.

Playoff Homers Nail AL Pennant To Indian Teepees

Three home runs, two by Lou Boudreau, playing-manager of the Cleveland Indians, and one by third baseman Ken Keltner, pace the Tribe to an 8 to 3 victory of the Boston Red Sox in the first play-off game in the history of the American league and give the Indians their first pennant since 1920 when Tris Speaker managed the club. Boudreau, who had a perfect day at bat with two homers and two searing singles in four official times at bat, crosses home plate in the first inning after rapping his first four-bagger (left photo). He is greeted by second baseman Joe Gordon. Boudreau and Gordon hail Keltner in the fourth inning as he scores after his home run with Boudreau and Gordon on bases (right photo). No. 14 is Larry Doby of Cleveland. Umpire is McGowan; catcher is Sox' Tebbetts. (International Soundphotos)

Plan To Televis Cleveland Games

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—(INS)—The Cleveland games of the World series this Friday, Saturday—and possibly Sunday—will be seen on Midwest Television's network of the American Broadcasting company.

This was announced by the network as soon as the playoff between the Red Sox and the Indians for first place in the American league was decided.

The scheduled telecasting of the Notre-Dame-Michigan football game on Saturday will be tentatively canceled for the series program. If the game is still being played when the series contest is over the remaining portion of it will be telecast.

Cards Will Keep Dyer As Manager

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Eddie Dyer went to work Monday to strengthen the St. Louis Cardinals for 1949 after reaching an agreement to manage the Red Birds for the next two years.

President Robert E. Hannegan announced that Dyer will be retained through 1950 but no details of the agreement were disclosed. Hannegan said no contract had been signed and added that the understanding was oral.

Indians Stage "Punch" Party

BOSTON, Oct. 5.—(INS)—If Cleveland's Indians display the same fight on the field as they did in their pennant-winning celebration they'll be a shoo-in to take Boston's Braves in the world series.

Four Cleveland players were involved in an extra-curricular swinging contest last night at a champagne party in a Boston hotel.

The champagne party became a punch party after first baseman Ed Robinson and second string catcher Joe Tipton exchanged heated words.

Pitcher Bob Lemon and third baseman Ken Keltner joined the fray—after attempting to mediate. They got punched, too.

Cards Give Musial Pay Increase

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Outfielder Stan (The Man) Musial signed a new contract with the St. Louis Cardinals for the 1949 and 1950 seasons.

Terms were not announced, but Cardinal President Robert E. Hannegan said Musial was given "a very substantial increase". Musial also declined to discuss the salary terms. However, it is believed his pay will be approximately $50,000 for each season.

Leading Batter

Musial's salary for 1948 was in the neighborhood of $35,000. His new pay of $50,000 a year makes him the highest paid player in the history of the Cardinals.

The new contract was signed in Hannegan's office after a brief conference.

Musial led both major leagues in batting this year with an unofficial average of .376.

Bill Nicholson Traded To Phils For Harry Walker

Cubs And Phils Exchange Outfielders, 'Nick' Just What Phils Need

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Hard-hitting Bill Nicholson came to the Phillies today in a trade which sent Harry (The Hat) Walker to the Chicago Cubs.

Nicholson is the Phillies' hope for a third long-ball hitter to team up with Del Ennis and Richie Ashburn in the Bluejays' outfield.

Walker, despite his winning the National league batting crown in 1947, is a comparatively weak stick. In 110 games this season he smashed in only 23 runs. His average was .286. Walker drove in but 41 runs in 1947 when he captured the batting crown with a .363 average.

"Nick" Can Clout Nicholson, on the other hand, batted in 66 runs for the Cubs on a percentage of .261. The Cub outfielder also racked up 19 home runs against Walker's two this season.

Walker, 29, broke into the majors with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1940. Nicholson, 34, began his major league career with the Cubs in 1939 and led the league in runs batted in in 1943 and 1944.

Payne And Sheppard Will Battle Oct. 11

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Two heavyweights, who may have something to say concerning the identity of the next world's champion meet in Pittsburgh October 11.

Rusty Payne, rated third among the big fellows by Ring Magazine, will be after his seventh straight knockout when he crawls through the ropes against "Hatchetman" Curtis Sheppard of Camden, N. J. Sheppard is ranked sixth.

Seek To 'Stratovise' 1948 World Series

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—(INS)—The Federal Communications Commission may decide today whether the 1948 World Series will be "stratovised".

The commission studied the problem over the weekend. If technical difficulties are worked out it will mean that television audiences in the east and midwest will be able to watch the championship game simultaneously.

At present there is no way of relaying television programs between the east and west except by stratovision.

Special Plane This involves the flying of a specially converted B-29 bomber at high altitudes to pick up and relay the signals between the two distant points.

The method as used by the Westinghouse Electric Corporation, however, has created several technical problems which may make the service impractical. Despite their pessimism, engineers hope to work out a solution by the time the first game opens Wednesday.

McKEESPORT ROLLING

Ostermueller Gets Outright Release

Pirates Hand 'Old Folks' Release Monday, Also Release Jim Kleckley

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 5.—(INS)—Fritz Ostermueller was handed his outright release Monday by the Pittsburgh Pirates, ending a major league career which extended through 390 games and 2,068 innings since 1934.

Ostermueller, who was 41 years old September 15, lost nine of his last 11 games and decided to retire. His record for the past season was eight wins and 11 losses in 23 games, bringing his major league total to 114 wins and 115 losses.

Kleckley Released In his major league career, Osty also was with Brooklyn, the Boston Red Sox and the St. Louis Browns. The Pirates announce also the outright release of Pitcher Jim Kleckley to New Orleans. Kleckley had been under option to the Pirates this season.

The place-kicking toe of Pitt Panther, Nick Bolikovac, has finally graduated from high school in its uphill climb toward being "educated."

State Has Large Rural Area Where German Is Spoken

Professor Of German At State College Finds German Pre-valing Language

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Oct. 5.—(INS)—The persistence of the Pennsylvania German language for nearly two centuries over a wide area in an English-speaking nation is an amazing phenomenon. The opinion of Dr. Albert F. Buffington, professor of German at the Pennsylvania State College.

Dr. Buffington points out that more than 300,000 people speak the language and that in many of the rural sections of certain counties in Pennsylvania, it is the pre-valing speech.
The language has spread far beyond the boundaries of Pennsylvania, Dr. Buffington explains, for as settlers migrated from the Keystone State, they carried the dialect with them. Pennsylvania German communities may be found in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, in parts of Maryland and Delaware throughout the Middle West, and as far away as the State of Oregon and in Canada.

There are variations in the language from area to area, but Pennsylvania Germans have little trouble understanding each other. Dr. Buffington also pointed out that in areas where the language is now seldom spoken, the influence of the dialect on the English language is radically noted. He attributes the passing of the language in some communities to the English-speaking public schools.

Pennsylvania German is not only a spoken dialect, but also is written. During the past 85 years Pennsylvania German has become more and more prominent in literary fields.

Aerial Night Display To Take Place Wednesday

VALPARISO, Fla., Oct. 5.—(INS)— Threatening weather Monday postponed the Air Force's initial display of aerial might in "Operation Combine" until Wednesday.
The last minute change in plans came a few hours before the joint Army, Navy and Air Force war games were scheduled to begin on the largest scale since V-J Day at nearby Eglin Air Force Base.

The greatest number of jet flight-ers ever to take part in military maneuvers—between 100 and 150
—were slated to attack mythical
"enemy" forces in launching the exercises.
The jets—all F-80 "Shooting Stars"—were to pace demonstrations by 500 Air Force, Navy and Marine planes.

A drizzling rain began shortly after noon yesterday, darkening the skies and threatening poor visibility for today.

The Air Force had planned to spread bombing, rocket firing, straffing and airborne invasion demonstrations peace-meal over the next three days. Now, these maneuvers will be concentrated into a three-hour show before noon
Wednesday.

The planes will use live ammunition throughout the air-ground assault exercises which will be repeated exactly as carried out Wednesday.

USE BAGS

Those paper garment bags that the dry cleaner uses to protect clothes makes ideal covers for your ironing board. To keep its cover free from dust. If the top of the board rubs against a shelf in the closet where it is stored, close up the opening in the bag with cellulose tape.
